OIPA

1st Annual OIPA Open Golf Scramble

Renowned golf architect Arthur Hills' championship course is a masterpiece and at the center of the Rose Creek community. Players of every skill level will enjoy Arthur Hills' links style layout and immense practice facility. The fairways stretch through naturally rolling terrain, tree-lined creeks, and native grasses. Over 50 strategically placed bunkers add extra beauty and challenge, while water comes into play on 12 holes.

Who: Everyone is invited – this is an “open” tournament! Those who are directly or indirectly involved in the crude oil and natural gas industry, regardless of whether or not those individuals ARE or ARE NOT current members of OIPA, are encouraged to participate!

What: 1ST ANNUAL OIPA OPEN GOLF SCRAMBLE

When: Monday, April 16, 2012 – shotgun start for morning and afternoon flights. Registration opens at 6:30 a.m. Shotgun start at 8:00 a.m. for morning flight. Approximately 12:30 p.m. shotgun start for afternoon flight.

Where: Rose Creek Golf Club – 17031 N. May Ave. – Edmond, OK

Why: Members of OIPA are encouraged to invite a non-member to join us for a day away from the office, networking with industry peers and most importantly, FUN! The OIPA is an advocacy association for our industry and we need your support and participation to make a difference! We are in search of new members and this is one way YOU can play a direct role in making that happen!

Cost: $125 per player - $500 per foursome
Includes entry fees, cart, range balls, $10 credit to restaurant or pro-shop, breakfast (for morning flight) and lunch.

The format will be a four-man scramble. Scores will be adjusted based on handicap. Participants are encouraged to put together their own teams, however individual registrants will be paired together by the Tournament Director. Keep in mind, the number of tournament participants for both the morning and afternoon flights is limited.

Don't delay – register today!
